

With the poor quality of local radio, I believe true competition from the likes of setellite radio will provide the consumer with more choices. Please allow the expansion of satellite radio to better serve the best options of the consumers of such products and not give in to local interest groups.
Thank You